

The Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D.C. 20505

13 July 1983

Major General John B. Marks, U.S. Air Force
Assistant Chief of Staff for Intelligence
Department of the Air Force
Washington, D.C. 20330

Dear John:

As you plan to move on to your next assignment, I would like to thank you for your valuable contributions to the National Foreign Intelligence Board and Council.

The quality of the National Foreign Intelligence Program and significant improvements in the national intelligence estimative process over the past two years reflect in no small way your sound advice and assistance. I am pleased that the Intelligence Community will continue to profit from your valuable service from your new vantage point with the Electronic Security Command.

Please accept my gratitude and sincere best wishes for success in your new endeavor.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey

*John - I have highly valued and greatly benefited from the many sharp insights you provided at our last
It's also been a pleasure
Bill*